

conversation structure exercise

This is not a homework. In the tutorial session on May 23rd, we will discuss (i) your previous homework, (ii) examples similar to the one below:

Given the dialogue between a customer (C) and a travel agent (A) (from Jurafsky and Martin) below:

- identify adjacency pairs (AP) and their initiation (i.e. first) and response (i.e. second) units.
- for each unit, decide whether it is a preferred or dispreferred second
- try to explain the customer's turn (7) in terms of conversational analysis: what type of response (=second) is it, what is C doing with it and why?

- (1)
1. C: I need to travel in May.
 2. A: And, what day in May did you want to travel?
 3. C: OK, uh, I need to be there for a meeting that's from the 12th to the 15th.
 4. A: And you're flying into what city?
 5. C: Seattle.
 6. A: And what time would you like to leave Pittsburgh?
 7. C: Uh hmm I don't think there's many options for non-stop.
 8. A: Right. There's three non-stops today.
 9. C: What are they?
 10. A: The first departs PGH at 10am and arrives Seattle at 1205 their time. The second flight departs PGH at 555pm, arrives Seattle at 8pm. And the last flight departs at 815pm arrives Seattle at 1028pm.
 11. C: OK, I'll take the 5ish flight on the night before on the 11th.
 12. A: On the 11th? OK. Departing at 555pm arrives Seattle at 8pm, US Air flight 115.
 13. C: OK.
